ORDER:

In the reference 2nd read above, the Honorable High Court of Andhra Pradesh, among other things, observed “mere fact that, the appointment of the petitioners was a few months subsequent to the said stipulated date should not result in denial of their right to proper wages. It is rather unfortunate that the persons who are rendering services for the past more than 1 ½ decades are being treated as daily wage employees” and directed the respondents to extend the benefit of minimum of pay scales for the posts in which the petitioners are working, provided they hold the stipulated qualifications, within four weeks.

2. In the reference 3rd read above, the Managing Director, A.P. State Housing Corporation Limited, inter – alia, requested the Government to issue necessary orders for implementation of the interim order, dated 8.8.2011 of the Honorable High Court of Andhra Pradesh, to avoid further legal complications in the matter.

3. Government after careful consideration of the circumstances stated by the MD., APSHCL., in his letter 3rd read above and the petitioners are qualified to hold the post of Work Inspector in which they are working, they decided to implement the orders dated 8.8.2011 of Honourable High Court in W.P.M.P No.3904/2011 in W.P.No.3150/2011 in respect of the petitioners only with prospective effect from the date of issue of orders and to allow the minimum emoluments attached to the post held by the petitioners.

4. Accordingly, Government here by permit the MD., APSHCL., to allow the minimum emoluments attached to the post held by the petitioners, in W.P.No. 3150/2011, i.e. (1). Sri Bhupati Venkateswara Rao, T.W.I. (2) Kalakonda Sreenu, T.W.I. (3). Sama Sathi Reddy, T.W.I. (4) Jallela Narasimha Murthy, T.W.I. (5) Mohd. Kaja Moinuddin, N.T.W.I. (6) B.Nagarjuna Raju, N.T.W.I. with prospective effect from the date of issue of the order.

(P.T.O.)

5. The MD., APSHCL, shall take necessary further action in the matter accordingly.
